

Rosa Willand,
8 USC 1101 note.

8 USC 1182.

66 Stat. 208, 212,
8 USC 1252,
1253.

SEC. 4. In the administration of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Rosa Willand, the fiancée of Eugene E. Born, a citizen of the United States shall be eligible for a visa as a nonimmigrant temporary visitor for a period of three months: Provided, That the administrative authorities find that the said Rosa Willand is coming to the United States with a bonafide intention of being married to the said Eugene E. Born and that they are found admissible under the Immigration and Nationality Act other than the provision of section 212 (a) (9) of that Act. In the event the marriage between the above-named persons does not occur within three months after the entry of the said Rosa Willand, she shall be required to depart from the United States and upon failure to do so shall be deported in accordance with the provisions of sections 242 and 243 of the Immigration and Nationality Act. In the event that the marriage between the above-named persons shall occur within three months after the entry of the said Rosa Willand, the Attorney General is authorized and directed to record the lawful admission for permanent residence of the said Rosa Willand as of the date of the payment by her of the required visa fee.

SEC. 5. The exemptions provided in this Act shall apply only to grounds for exclusion of which the Department of State or the Department of Justice had knowledge prior to the enactment of this Act.

Approved July 14, 1956.

[H. R. 1876]

AN ACT

For the relief of Martin M. Sorensen.

Martin M. Sorensen.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Martin M. Sorensen, New Orleans, Louisiana, the sum of $592.50. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims of the said Martin M. Sorensen against the United States for pay and allowances for forty-five days terminal leave which he should have received as an incident to his service as a commissioned officer in the United States Coast Guard Reserve: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.
